Pursuant to Minn. Stat. Ann. § 332.70(4): The report may include information that has been expunged, sealed, or has otherwise become inaccessible to the public since the date it was collected.

This report or portions of this report may have been rated or scored pursuant to criteria provided by the end-user. The rating is merely to ease the reviewer(s) review of the report and does not indicate that any employment decision has been made. Regardless of any score, absent any statutory provision mandating an employment action, an individualized analysis should be performed.

Sterling provides the information contained in this report to End-User to be used solely for a permissible purpose as defined in the Fair Credit Reporting Act. If the End-User intends to take adverse action based in whole or in part on the contents of this report, the End-User must provide the consumer with notices that it is taking adverse action and those notices must comply with the FCRA and state law. All information contained in this report is provided pursuant to the terms of the End-User Agreement. End-User further understands that it uses any and all information provided by Sterling at its own risk and End-User is solely liable for complying with all federal, state, and local laws. The information contained in this report is confidential and may only be accessed by authorized employees of End-User, provided to the consumer about who it relates, or provided as otherwise required by law.

The scope of the criminal history search is 7 years plus. Due to State and Federal reporting guidelines for consumer reporting agencies, there are criminal records that may not be reported.
